

Course Code & Title:	SPAN 2001 A, B, C SPANISH III
Language of Instruction: Spanish/English	Units: 3

Course Description

Building on the knowledge acquired in SPAN2000, this course aims to further enhance students' communication skills in the four language domains listening, speaking, reading and writing. Students are expected to communicate confidently in a wider range of social interactions including more formal situations and simple professional contexts as well as reporting past events and sharing experience. At the end of this course, students will have completed a proficiency level comparable to level A1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR). (Prerequisite: SPAN 2000 or equivalent competence. Not for students who have taken SPAN 3050).

Learning Outcomes

By the end of the course, students are expected to:

- Understand and use the language to satisfy needs of a concrete type, talk about himself/herself or communicate in very simple and routine tasks.
- Perceive and understand familiar everyday expressions and simple sentences aimed at the satisfaction of needs of a concrete type.
- Read and understand the meaning of words and simple sentences with the help of the context, being able to differentiate the functions and relations of the different words in a Spanish sentence.
- Interact in a simple way provided that the other person talks slowly and clearly and is prepared to help.
- Use simple phrases and sentences related to areas of most immediate personal relevance and engage in simple and direct exchanges of information on familiar and routine matters.
- Write short texts related to areas of immediate relevance.

Academic Honesty and Plagiarism

Attention is drawn to University policy and regulations on honesty in academic work, and to the disciplinary guidelines and procedures applicable to breaches of such policy and regulations. Details may be found at <http://www.cuhk.edu.hk/policy/academichonesty/>.

With each assignment, students will be required to submit a signed declaration that they are aware of these policies, regulations, guidelines and procedures. For group projects, all students of the same group should be asked to sign the declaration.

For assignments in the form of a computer-generated document that is principally text-based and submitted via VeriGuide, the statement, in the form of a receipt, will be issued by the system upon students' uploading of the soft copy of the assignment. Assignments without the receipt will not be graded by teachers. Only the final version of the assignment should be submitted via VeriGuide.

Feedback for Evaluation

Our language programme highly values students' feedback and comments and is happy to use them for reflection on our teaching and improvement. Students are very welcome to provide comments and feedback on the course any time to their course teacher or the course level coordinator through email or in personal conversation. In addition, students' feedbacks will be collected in the middle of the term through an open-end questionnaire and the teacher will discuss the feedbacks in class and make improvements if necessary. The course will also follow the university's course evaluation exercise at the end of the term, and students' feedbacks will be used for future course planning and teaching.
