

Overseas Summer Study Programmes 2020

1. Enrollment Method

- 1.1 Students should do the online registration for the overseas programmes that they intend to enroll in through the websites of the respective overseas programmes and arrange necessary payment (such as tuition fees and accommodation fees) themselves according to the instructions of the programmes. For enquiries, students should directly contact the host universities.
- 1.2 Students who will enroll in the programmes recommended by the Department of Linguistics and Modern Languages should complete the registration form here:
<https://cloud.itsc.cuhk.edu.hk/webform/view.php?id=9151517> from 1 March 2020 to 31 March 2020 for record and application for financial support (if available).

2. Financial Support

- 2.1 All students who have submitted the registration form together with their transcripts mentioned in item no. 1.2 will automatically be considered for the financial support (if available):
 - The Department of Linguistics and Modern Languages will offer 10 awards of HK$5,000 each to 5 non-final year Linguistics Major students and 5 year one Bimodal Bilingual Studies Major students who have cumulative GPA of at least 3.0.
 - Students can also apply for the “Summer Subsistence and Travel Loan Scheme” (http://admission.cuhk.edu.hk/aid/summer_and_travel.html). Please check on the website of the Office of Admissions and Financial Aid for the application deadline.
 - Besides, funding support from the different consulates may also be available.
- 2.2 A number of colleges have offered different grants and loans to their students to participate in overseas study programmes. Students are encouraged to visit the colleges’ websites or contact the college offices for financial support for taking overseas summer study programmes. Please be reminded to pay attention to the application deadlines.
- 2.3 While different funding parties may have different selection criteria, for those awards administered by the Department of Linguistics and Modern Languages, the following criteria are adopted:
 - (1) No. of Modern Language courses taken
 - (2) Cumulative GPA of Modern Languages courses
 - (3) Overall cumulative GPA
- 2.4 The recipients of the financial awards will be notified via email and all the awards will be given to the recipients after their study trips. Recipients are required to inform the Department of Linguistics and Modern Languages if they receive any other funding support for their trips from/or through other units of the CUHK and the Department has the right to not grant the awards or to reduce the amount of the awards to the recipients.
- 2.5 Upon completion of the programmes, recipients of financial awards are required to submit copies of their certificate of attendance and/or academic reports together with the original copies of the payment receipts of air tickets, tuition fees and accommodation fees in order to receive the awards. Moreover, the recipients are also required to submit a CD with a written report on the overseas learning experience of 500-800 words in English together with 10 digital photographs of the study trip. The granters and the Department of Linguistics and Modern Languages shall have the right to publish and use the whole or part of the report and photographs.

3. Enquiry

Please contact Ms. Yurika Ng of the Department of Linguistics and Modern Languages (Telephone: 3943 9836; Email: yurikang@cuhk.edu.hk) for enquiries.