Department of Linguistics and Modern Languages
The Chinese University of Hong Kong

First Term, 2026-27

Course Code & Title:	HKSL1000 BC01 Hong Kong Sign Language I
Language of Instruction: Hong Kong Sign Language	Units: 3

Course Description

This course introduces basic communication in Hong Kong Sign Language. The course adopts a communicative approach, and learners are systematically guided to acquire the language for effective communication in everyday situations. Emphasis will be placed on the essential grammar of the Hong Kong Sign Language. It also offers a general introduction to the culture and customs of the local Deaf community.

Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, students will develop Hong Kong Sign Language proficiency at A1 level in the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR). CEFR profiles a learner's language proficiency in a number of illustrative descriptors in six levels (A1, A2, B1, B2, C1, C2). The descriptors cover language skills of production, comprehension, signed interaction, processing text, pragmatic competencies, thematic development, and qualitative factors. Acquiring the skills at A1 level, students will be basic users of Hong Kong Sign Language, being able to use the language to

- understand and use familiar everyday expressions and very basic phrases aimed at the satisfaction of needs of a concrete type, including
  - introducing themselves and others ($CILO_1$);
  - asking and answering questions about personal details, like where they live, people they know and things they have ($CILO_2$).
- interact in a simple way, provided the other person communicates slowly and clearly and is prepared to help ($CILO_3$).

Notes:

- Students are required to arrive on time. If you are late (for more than 15 minutes from the beginning of the class) two times without a valid reason, it will be considered as one absence.
- Students are required to attend at least 75% of the class. Treat 75% attendance as the minimum, not the maximum.
- Should a student miss more than 25% of the class, he/she will automatically fail the course.
- If a student is unable to attend, he/she should review the content and homework that are missed and make them up him/her-self.
- For late submissions of assessment tasks and missed tests, please refer to the Late Submission Policy and Make-up Test Arrangements for details on arrangements and penalties (if applicable).

Assessment rubrics
Please refer to the rubrics (Reflective Journals, Assignments (Production), Project and Final Exam (Signed Interaction)) released on Blackboard.

Late submission policy
Assessment task	Extension allowed (Y/N)	Descriptions of Late submission policy
1. Reflective Journal	Y	Students with valid reasons for late assignment submission must submit a formal request by email, including supporting documentation, to the course teacher at least 1 calendar day before the original deadline. Upon approval, students must submit the assignment within 3 calendar days after the original deadline. Unless an extension is granted, late submissions will result in a penalty of a 10% deduction from the final marks awarded. Only unforeseen or exceptional circumstances beyond a student's control will be considered for a penalty waiver.
2. Assignments	Y
3. Project	Y

Make-up Test Arrangements
Assessment test	Makeup allowed (Y/N)	Description of Makeup arrangement and penalty (if any)
1. Exam	Y	To be considered for a make-up examination, students must submit a written application to the course teacher on or before the scheduled exam date, together with appropriate supporting documentation. Late submissions or requests that do not include valid supporting documents will NOT be considered. Students who are absent from any examination without prior approval will receive a failing grade for that examination. Only one make-up examination will be scheduled for the entire class, to be held within 7 calendar days after the originally scheduled exam date. Regardless of the reason for the absence, a 20% deduction from the final marks awarded in the make-up exam will be applied. Remarks: A penalty of a 20% deduction from the final marks awarded will be applied to students who are late for the examination, whether on the originally scheduled date or the make-up examination date.

Feedback for Evaluation
Our language programme highly values students' feedback and comments and is happy to use them for reflection on our teaching and improvement. Students are very welcome to provide comments and feedback on the course at any time to their course teacher or the course level coordinator through email or in personal conversation. In addition, students' feedbacks will be collected in the middle of the term through an open-ended questionnaire and the teacher will discuss the feedbacks in class and make improvements if necessary. The course will also follow the university's course evaluation exercise at the end of the term, and students' feedbacks will be used for future course planning and teaching.

Academic Honesty and Plagiarism
Attention is drawn to University policy and regulations on honesty in academic work, and to the disciplinary guidelines and procedures applicable to breaches of such policy and regulations. Details may be found at http://www.cuhk.edu.hk/policy/academichonesty/.

With each assignment, students will be required to submit a signed declaration that they are aware of these policies, regulations, guidelines and procedures.

- In the case of group projects, all members of the group should be asked to sign the declaration, each of whom is responsible and liable to disciplinary actions, irrespective of whether he/she has signed the declaration and whether he/she has contributed, directly or indirectly, to the problematic contents.
- For assignments in the form of a computer-generated document that is principally text-based and submitted via VeriGuide, the statement, in the form of a receipt, will be issued by the system upon students' uploading of the soft copy of the assignment.
- Students are fully aware that their work may be investigated by AI content detection software to determine originality.
- Students are fully aware of the AI approach(es) adopted in the course. In the case where some AI tools are allowed, students have made proper acknowledgment and citations as suggested by the course teacher.

Assignments without a properly signed declaration will not be graded by teachers.

Only the final version of the assignment should be submitted via VeriGuide.

The submission of a piece of work, or a part of a piece of work, for more than one purpose (e.g. to satisfy the requirements in two different courses) without declaration to this effect shall be regarded as having committed undeclared multiple submissions. It is common and acceptable to reuse a turn of phrase or a sentence or two from one's own work; but wholesale reuse is problematic. In any case, agreement from the course teacher(s) concerned should be obtained prior to the submission of the piece of work.

The copyright of the teaching materials, including lecture notes, assignments and examination questions, etc., produced by staff members/ teachers of The Chinese University of Hong Kong (CUHK) belongs to CUHK. Students may download the teaching materials produced by the staff members/ teachers from the Learning Management Systems, e.g. Blackboard, adopted by CUHK for their own educational use, but shall not distribute/ share/ copy the materials to a third-party without seeking prior permission from the staff members/ teachers concerned.

Use of Generative Artificial Intelligence (AI) Tools in Teaching, Learning and Assessment

All use of AI tools is prohibited in assignments and assessment tasks

For assignments and assessment tasks that count towards the final course grades, students are not allowed to submit work which is produced with the collaboration of or supported by the use of any generative AI tools (e.g. ChatGPT)*.

Any breach of the regulations will be considered an act of academic dishonesty and will be handled according to the University's Procedures for Handling Cases of Academic Dishonesty.

In case of queries, students should seek advice from the course teacher.

Guideline on sharing lecture recordings

1. The copyright of any lecture recordings shared in the course, whether they are produced by teachers, students, or peer note-takers, belongs to the University.
2. Students should not share these recordings with others without obtaining prior written consent from the teacher(s).
