B. Enrolment with the Linguistics & Modern Languages Department (compulsory, please see here below)

Besançon and its area: Besançon is the capital of the department of Doubs and of the Franche-Comté region in eastern France, close to the border with Switzerland. In 2012, it had a population of 116,353. Once proclaimed first green city of France, it has been labeled a “Town of Art and History” since 1986. Since 2008, Besançon’s Vauban citadel has been listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The city has one of the most beautiful historic centers of any major town in France. A broad horse-shoe of the river Doubs, "la Boucle", encircles the old town, while Vauban's imposing Citadelle blocks off the neck. The historic center presents a remarkable ensemble of classic stone buildings, some dating back to the Middle Ages and others to the Spanish Renaissance. Her festivals and events throughout the year lend vibrancy to the air. There is her fabulous history of watchmaking and micro- and nanotechnologies that connects the halls of time and science.
