

Important information on Credit-transfer application (1/3)

About your group level in France:

To be able to transfer credits, you should take a course of a higher level than the last course you took in the CUHK French Programme.

You should NOT repeat the same level, NOT repeat the same content as the last French course you took at CUHK. For instance:

A. You studied French 2 (FREN2000) at CUHK: you should enroll in a class equivalent to French 3 (FREN2001) & French 4 (FREN3000). You should NOT enroll in a course equivalent to French 2 (FREN2000) or French 1 (FREN1000).

B. You studied French 4 (FREN3000) at CUHK, you should enroll in a class equivalent to French 5 (FREN3001) & French 6 (FREN3002). You should NOT enroll in a course equivalent to French 4 (FREN2000) or of a lower level than French 4.

Important information on Credit-transfer application (2/3)

-Students may be considered for up to 6 units of courses for credit transfer;

depending on three criteria:

- (i) the number of contact hours (14 hours for one unit),
- (ii) language levels,
- (iii) performance in the course.

-We are not able to guarantee the results of credit-transfer application before you finish the course.

If you have any concern, please do not enrol the summer course to avoid false expectation.

-Some students may not be able to transfer the credit as they repeat the same level at the French university as the courses they already completed at CUHK.

-The credit transfer application is restricted to language courses only.

Important information on Credit-transfer application (3/3)

About your group level in France :

After your placement test (one the first day), make sure you are in an appropriate group :

- Ask other CUHK student, if any, what level they have studied in CUHK;
- Compare the CUHK course outlines to the course outline in the school in France!

All the course outlines of the CUHK French Programme available on the French Common Room:

The Chinese University of Hong Kong
Department of Linguistics and Modern Languages
Overseas Summer Study Programmes of Modern Languages 2024

- Enrollment Method
  - The Department of Linguistics and Modern Languages will recommend students enroll in a list of overseas summer study programmes of Modern Languages available in 2024. Please pay attention to the details to be provided by individual language programmes.
  - Students should complete the online registration for their intended overseas summer study programme(s) through the websites of the respective overseas institutes and process the necessary payment (e.g. tuition fees, accommodation fees, etc.) on their own according to the instructions of the individual programmes. For inquiries, students should directly contact the host universities.
- Financial Support
  - Students who would like to apply for financial sponsorship for studying in the overseas summer study programmes recommended by the Department of Linguistics and Modern Languages should submit the online registration form through the following website from 1 to 31 March 2024: <https://cloud.ling.cuhk.edu.hk/webform/view.php?id=13687968>. The applicant's unofficial transcript downloadable from CUSIS will be required for the online registration. Students who have submitted the registration form together with their unofficial transcripts will automatically be considered for the following financial supports administered by the Department of Linguistics and Modern Languages:
    - five awards of HK$5,000 each to five non-final year Linguistics Major students (with a cumulative GPA of at least 3.0) funded by the Department of Linguistics and Modern Languages; and
    - the funding support from different consulates. Details are subject to be confirmed and will be announced separately in due course.

The following criteria are adopted for selecting the award recipients:

  - Number/Units of Modern Language courses taken
  - The cumulative GPA of the Modern Languages courses taken
  - The overall cumulative GPA
- The recipients of the financial awards will be notified via email and the financial sponsorship will be reimbursed to the award recipients after the completion of their study trips. Recipients are required to report to the Department of Linguistics and Modern Languages if they receive any other funding support for their trips provided from or through other units of the CUHK (see points 2.4 - 2.5). The Department reserves the right to claw back the awards for redistribution to other needy students or to re-consider the amount of the financial sponsorship to the recipients under such circumstances.
- Upon the completion of the aforesaid programmes, the recipients of financial awards are required to submit copies of their certificate of attendance and/or academic reports of the summer programme(s) they joined, together with the original copies of the payment receipts of the air tickets (if any), tuition fees and accommodation fees for reimbursing the sponsorship. Moreover, the recipients are required to submit a written report of 500-800 words in English on their overseas learning experience, together with 10 digital photographs taken during the study trip. The granters of the awards and the Department of Linguistics and Modern Languages will have the right to publish and use the whole or part of the report and photographs submitted by the award recipients for publications and production of promotional materials for our Department.
- Student may apply for "Summer Subsistence and Travel Loan Scheme" administered by Office of Admissions and Financial Aid (OAF) for their summer overseas studies.
